

Challenge: To Read Through the Bible in a Year

Psalms 119:105 (NLT)

“Your word is a lamp to guide my feet and a light for my path.”

Challenge: To read through the Bible in a year!

It seems impossible, but I think with GOD’S help you can do it. Let me share some thoughts on this challenge.

“What are some benefits?”

- You spend time with God!
- You will get to know God more intimately.
- You develop a discipline that has eternal benefits.
- You can tell people you read through the WHOLE Bible. (Although this seems kind of prideful, statistically only a few believers have actually read through the entire Bible.)
- You will, after a while, “feel” the need to read the Word of God much like you need a drink of water or food.

“What will make this challenge a success?”

- If you make it a priority!
- If you do not give up, (even if you get a month or two behind)!
- If you are able to see God daily reveal Himself through what you read!
- If you tell others what you learn about God!

“Pastor Jim, do you have any suggestions on how to do this?”

- Use many Bibles. Strategically place Bibles in places where you can pick it up and read. (Suggestion – office/work, car, home, bed, bathroom, etc.)
- Mark off the chapters you read. When you get 3 months into the year you will be encouraged by your progress.
- Read to enjoy. Don’t try to understand everything. You can easily get overwhelmed if you try to comprehend everything! There will be a time for in-depth study and this is not the time.

- Encourage others. Find out who else is reading through in one year and meet with them to encourage them. Get together for a meal once a week or once every two weeks. Make it fun!
- Keep a journal. I did not use a journal this last time, but I am thinking about using one in order to jot down thoughts regarding my ministry. You can tailor it to meet your needs. At least keep a pen/pencil and paper close.
- View it as a blessing. View it as the blessing that it is! If you look at it as a “ball and chain” then you will struggle with it.
- Ask people to help you be accountable. As you know I am big on accountability. Have someone keep on you by asking the question, “How are you doing with the challenge of reading through the Bible in a year?”
- Don’t give up. I said this before, but it is so important. Obviously, it is our goal to read EACH day. However, for whatever reason we fall behind. At one point I was several days behind (40+), but I kept going. I made myself read double and triple portions to get caught up! Don’t give up!
- Rejoice in your success along the way! Celebrate reading through the first five books! Take yourself out to lunch for completing the Psalms! Buy a new Bible on December 31 to reward yourself. Celebrate!
- Satan will not be happy! Satan will do everything he can to sidetrack you from reading. He will discourage you, hide your Bible, initiate other priorities and etc. Don’t let him keep you out of God’s word!
- Pray! Use the time to talk to God. Thank Him for His word and what He reveals to you throughout the year.

I realize this is a tough challenge, but if we are going to be a church that makes the Word of God a priority in our life, then we need to be reading it! Are you up for it? I hope so!

May God richly bless you as you read!

In His Grip,

Pastor Jim Merillat
